

Rungta Irrigation Limited

An ISO 9001:2008 Certified Company

POLICY ON RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

[This version of policy on Related Party Transactions is amended on 9th May, 2025 as per applicable laws.]

PREAMBLE

The enactment of the Companies Act 2013(the “Act”), amendments to the SEBI (Listing Regulations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 [SEBI (LODR) Regulations, 2015] and requirements under the Income Tax Act relating to Transfer Pricing both for International and Domestic transactions, has resulted into a significant importance on the compliances to be made on the Related Party Transactions. Pursuant to [SEBI (LODR) Regulations, 2015], the Company is required to devise a policy on materiality of Related Party Transactions and also on dealing with Related Party Transactions. Rungta Irrigation Limited (the “Company”) recognizes that Related Party Transactions can present potential or actual conflicts of interest and may raise questions about whether such transactions are consistent with the Company’s and its stakeholders’ best interests.

OBJECTIVE

The Objective of this Policy is to bring uniform practices relating to Related Party Transactions covering the process, methodology, arm’s length pricing, approval mechanism, disclosures and compliance with the provisions of the Companies Act 2013 and rules framed thereunder, SEBI (LODR) Regulation, 2015 and the Transfer Pricing norms prescribed under the Income Tax Act, 1961 and Accounting Standards. Hence the Company seeks to formulate a robust Policy on Related Party Transactions to deal with the identification, review and approval of Related Party Transactions.

SCOPE

This Policy is applicable to all Related Party Transactions entered by the Company as per the Companies Act, 2013, SEBI (LODR) Regulation, 2015 and the Transfer Pricing norms prescribed under the Income Tax Act, 1961 and Accounting Standards.

The broad Policy covering various aspects of review, approval mechanism and implementation is described below:

I) APPROVING AUTHORITY:

A. BY THE AUDIT COMMITTEE:

Under the Regulation 23(2) of SEBI (LODR) Regulations, 2015:

All related party transactions and subsequent material modifications shall require prior approval of the audit committee of the Company.

Provided that only those members of the audit committee, who are independent directors, shall approve related party transactions.

Provided further that:

(a) the audit committee of a listed entity shall define “material modifications” and disclose it as part of the policy on materiality of related party transactions and on dealing with related party transactions;

(b) a related party transaction to which the subsidiary of the Company is a party but the Company is not a party, shall require prior approval of the audit committee of the Company if the value of such transaction whether entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year exceeds ten per cent of the annual consolidated turnover, as per the last audited financial statements of the Company;

(c) with effect from April 1, 2023, a related party transaction to which the subsidiary of the Company is a party but the Company is not a party, shall require prior approval of the audit committee of the Company if the value of such transaction whether entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year, exceeds ten per cent of the annual standalone turnover, as per the last audited financial statements of the subsidiary;

(d) prior approval of the audit committee of the Company shall not be required for a related party transaction to which the listed subsidiary is a party but the Company is not a party, if regulation 23 and sub-regulation (2) of regulation 15 of these regulations are applicable to such listed subsidiary.

Explanation: For related party transactions of unlisted subsidiaries of a listed subsidiary as referred to in (d) above, the prior approval of the audit committee of the listed subsidiary shall suffice.

(e) remuneration and sitting fees paid by the listed entity or its subsidiary to its director, key managerial personnel or senior management, except who is part of promoter or promoter group, shall not require approval of the audit committee provided that the same is not material in terms of the provisions of sub-regulation (1) of this regulation.

(f) The members of the audit committee, who are independent directors, may ratify related party transactions within three months from the date of the transaction or in the immediate next meeting of the audit committee, whichever is earlier, subject to the following conditions:

I. the value of the ratified transaction(s) with a related party, whether entered into individually or taken together, during a financial year shall not exceed rupees one crore;

II. the transaction is not material in terms of the provisions of sub-regulation (1) of this regulation;

III. rationale for inability to seek prior approval for the transaction shall be placed before the audit committee at the time of seeking ratification;

IV. the details of ratification shall be disclosed along with the disclosures of related party transactions in terms of the provisions of sub-regulation (9) of this regulation;

V. any other condition as specified by the audit committee:

Provided that failure to seek ratification of the audit committee shall render the transaction voidable at the option of the audit committee and if the transaction is with a related party to any director, or is authorised by any other director, the director(s) concerned shall indemnify the listed entity against any loss incurred by it.”

Under the Companies Act, 2013:

Any transaction or any subsequent modification of transactions of the company with related parties shall require the approval of the Audit Committee at a Meeting of the Audit Committee or by Circulation.

a. BY THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS:

Under the SEBI (LODR) Regulations, 2015:

All Material Related Party Transactions under the Listing Agreement which are subject to approval of the shareholders shall require the approval of the Board of Directors at a Meeting of the Board or by Circulation.

Under the Companies Act, 2013:

All “Related Party Transactions which are not in Ordinary Course of Business or not at an Arms’ Length” shall require the prior approval of the Board of Directors at a Meeting of the Board and cannot be passed by Circulation.

b. BY THE SHAREHOLDERS:

Under the SEBI (LODR) Regulations, 2015:

All material related party transactions and subsequent material modifications as defined by the audit committee under Regulation 23(2) of SEBI (LODR) Regulations , shall require prior approval of the shareholders through resolution and no related party shall vote to approve such resolutions whether the entity is a related party to the particular transaction or not.

Provided that prior approval of the shareholders of the Company shall not be required for a related party transaction to which the listed subsidiary is a party but the Company is not a party, if regulation 23 and sub-regulation (2) of regulation 15 of these regulations are applicable to such listed subsidiary.

Explanation: For related party transactions of unlisted subsidiaries of a listed subsidiary as referred above, the prior approval of the shareholders of the listed subsidiary shall suffice.

All Material Related Party Transactions under the SEBI (LODR) Regulations, 2015 shall require approval of the Shareholders’ by means of a Special Resolution passed at a General Meeting or through Postal Ballot. All entities falling under the definition of Related Parties shall abstain from voting irrespective of whether the entity is a party to the particular transaction or not.

Approval of shareholders is not required for any transaction entered into between the Company and its wholly owned subsidiary whose accounts are consolidated with the Company and placed before the shareholders at the general meeting for approval.

Under the Companies Act, 2013:

All “Related Party Transactions which are not in Ordinary Course of Business or not at an Arms Length” and exceeding the prescribed criteria under Section 188 of the Companies Act, 2013 shall require prior approval of the Shareholders' by means of a Special Resolution passed at a General Meeting or through Postal Ballot.

In case of Wholly Owned Subsidiary, the Special Resolution passed by the Company shall be sufficient (for the Wholly Owned Subsidiary Company) for the purpose of entering into the transactions between the Wholly Owned Subsidiary and the Company.
